To the President and Members of the Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in Canada, assembled at Belleville, June, 1854.

REPORT OF LAY COMMITTEE ON MINISTERS' ALLOWANCES.

It may be proper to state that this Committee originated with a general meeting of the Lay friends of the Methodist Church in Canada East, called for the purpose of hearing the result of the discussions in the District Meeting of Wesleyan Ministers, respecting the consolidation of Methodism in Canada, by the union of the Canada East District with the Canada Conference.

In the project of union there was scarcely a dissentient voice. All were agreed that it was both necessary and expedient; but, as the subject opened before the minds of many intelligent and tried friends of Methodism, and Methodist Ministers, it was perceived that, unless provided for otherwise, apparent injustice would be done to the Ministers who had laboured for years past in this district, in consequence of the diminution in the scale of allowances being made possible, by the Canada Book of Discipline defining, to a certain extent, what shall be the income of Ministers.

The Committee have no hesitation in declaring, that the scale of allowances as set forth in the Book of Discipline, could not be acted upon in Lower Canada, without placing the ministry in a position of inferiority and poverty which would inevitably be attended with injurious consequences, especially in that which relates to ministerial comfort and usefulness. It may be known that there is a great difference in the cost of nearly all articles of consumption in Lower Canada, as compared with Upper Canada, and that at all times, whatever the existing rates in the latter section of the Province. On this ground alone, the enforcement of the existing Canadian regulations would not be just and proper in any part of Lower Canada, and more particularly in reference to the ministerial members of this District, who having been accustomed to a scale of allowances only just sufficient to meet their wants, and enable them to keep out of debt, could not now be expected to deny themselves of ordinary comforts, and ought not to be required to make unnecessary sacrifices for the attainment of ever so desirable an object.

It is believed by this Committee that a reference to the allowances of the Methodist ministry in Upper Canada will not be deemed intrusive and improper, since we are likely, at so very early a period, to become one with the people of that part of our country. In conversation with lay friends from Upper Canada, it is evident that an increasing and spreading conviction exists there, that the income of Methodist Ministers is far below what, in justice, it ought to be. Without expressing any opinion as to the past, it is surely inequitable to apply the same standard of payment for services rendered now, as that which prevailed in the country fifty or twenty-five years ago. In material wealth and general prosperity, Canada has advanced as much as any country, in the same time. The Methodist ministry has been, under God, a chief element, and producing cause of growth and greatness, and ought, to some extent, to share in the fruits of past continued toil and zeal. But this is impossible, even if the full allowances are made up according to the present scale. It is insufficient. It does not place the Methodist ministry on a footing of equality with an ordinary and respectable mechanic. A change is required.

This committee does not feel itself competent to decide in what way an improvement can be introduced and carried out; but, as laymen, they would appeal to the laymen of the Church in Upper Canada, that, when the proper time shall come, and an adjusted scheme of compensation to Ministers be brought forward for consideration, it may receive their hearty support and concurrence.

According to the tenor of the discussion at the general meeting appointing this Committee, it does not appear that other than these two topics were committed to it for consideration. The views of the Committee are expressed generally in the foregoing remarks, but the following resolution is respectfully submitted to the members of the Canada Conference, and the Committee trusts it will meet with a cordial concurrence.

Resolved,—That, after due consideration of the facts set forth by a Lay Committee of Methodists in Lower Canada, in reference to the allowances for the support of the ministry, and in view of the contemplated incorporation of the Eastern Canada District with this body, the Conference is of opinion that the scale of income for that section of the country is rather under than over what is requisite for the comfort and respectability of the brethren labouring there, and that, therefore, no diminution ought to take effect in consequence of the union, but that especially the children and servants' quarterages be continued in full as heretofore.

As no financial change can be effected without the concurrence of the Quarterly Meetings, within the bounds of the Canada Conference, this Committee respectfully recommends the adoption of initiatory measures, for the purpose of bringing the whole subject in due form before the lay officers of the Church throughout Canada; and, further, being anxious to proceed with promptness in this important matter, this Committee suggests the propriety of constituting, at the present Conference, a mixed Committee of Ministers and Laymen from each section of the Province, to whom shall be confided the duty of reviewing the temporal economy of our Church, in so far as relates to the support of the ministry and their families; that this mixed Joint-Committee shall report as early as possible to the Executive Committee of the Conference, who shall be instructed, if they deem it expedient, to lay the same before the Quarterly Meeting of each Circuit; the vote of concurrence or non-concurrence to be reported to the next Conference.

In conclusion, the Committee is fully persuaded that the ministerial brethren of the Canada Conference will receive, with candour and kindness, this imperfect embodiment of the feeling and sentiment that prevailed in the meeting which deputed to them this duty and responsibility. Having given to the subject a careful consideration, the Committee begs leave most respectfully to submit its views, with an humble prayer, that the Great Head of the Church may direct all your counsels for his own glory, by the spread of scriptural holiness throughout the land.

Signed in behalf of the Committee.

J. FERRIER, Chairman.

After various conversations the Conference

“Resolved,—That having received suggestions from the Canada East District Meeting, and also from a Meeting of certain Laymen of the Wesleyan Church in Canada East, in reference to the calling of a meeting in some central place during the coming year, in order to take into consideration the subject of a revision of the temporal economy of the Church, this Conference heartily concurs in that suggestion, and recommends that each Circuit in Western and Eastern Canada appoint a Lay Representation, who, in connection with the Conference Special Committee, shall form a Committee for that purpose. The Committee to meet in the City of Kingston in October next.”

The following report from the Committee appointed to draft a scale of allowances, was read.

MINISTERS' ALLOWANCES.

“The Committee with great readiness agreed upon the following scale of allowance, to be recommended to the meeting for adoption.

I. That Art. 1st of Second Section of Discipline be altered so that £25 shall be read £35, and that Art. 2nd remain as at present, viz : £25.

II. That a Preacher's Salary after he is received into full connexion and ordained, shall be £45 per annum while he remains single.

III. That each child shall be allowed £7 10s per annum, until the age of 18—unless otherwise provided for.

IV. That in case of the death of a Preacher's wife, instead of the provision for payment of Board for children, &c.—that no difference shall be made in the Salary—provided that such Preacher has a family to provide for.

V. That a fund be established for equalizing the support of Preachers' children upon the principle adopted by the English Conference.

VI. That the sums provided in articles 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 of Section Second be increased twenty-five per cent per annum.

VII. Your Committee recommends, which is all they feel can be done at present, that the Quarterly Boards do make a liberal, yea, generous allowance for all the expenses of the Preachers' Families, such as Board, Fuel, Servants, Physicians' Bills, House Rent, Horse Keeping, &c., so that our Preachers may be placed at least on a par with those of all other denominations, and relieved from the harassing cases of providing for their families in pecuniary matters, which so often sadly interfere with ministerial duties, and lessen ministerial influence.

Signed on behalf of the Committee.

JOHN H. MOORE,

Chairman.

JOHN BEATY,

Secretary."

The Report was then taken up and discussed seriatim. A lengthened discussion on each item was maintained, when it was.

Moved by J. DEACON, Esq., of Perth, and Seconded by Sheriff SNIDER, of Owen Sound, and passed unanimously.

That the Report which has been read and discussed, be adopted.

MIXED COMMITTEES

Moved by JAMES HODGSON,—Seconded by RICHARD WOODSWORTH.

Resolved,—That as a principle, it is just and expedient that all our Connexional Funds, raised wholly or principally by the exertions of ministers and others, and the contributions of our people at large, should be managed by mixed Committees composed of equal numbers of Ministers and laymen, conjointly: so that they, who by personal services or pecuniary benevolence have contributed to their accumulation, may have a fair and equitable share in their management and distribution.

Moved by J. DEACON, Esq.—Seconded by J. H. MOORE, Esq.

Resolved,—That in accordance with the above principle this meeting respectfully requests the Conference to place the Contingent Fund, the Chapel Relief Fund, and the College Fund, under the direction of mixed Committees.

 CONTINGENT FUND.

At the same meeting they shall complete the settlement of the extraordinaries of the previous year, including travelling expenses, afflictions, and miscellaneous expenses of various kinds connected with the executive department of the general work.

Moved by Dr. LAVELL, of Peterborough—Seconded by C. FRENCH, Esq., of Melbourne:

Resolved—That the Financial District Meeting, held in the month of September in each year, shall apportion the amount of money which the Contingent Fund Committee shall have apportioned to each District, and in doing so, they shall consider the probable expenditure of each circuit asking assistance from the Contingent Fund, and having Moved by JOHN WILSON, Esq.—Seconded by JAMES APPLEBEE, Esq.

Moved by JOHN BOOTH, Esq.—Seconded by T. BICKLE, Esq.

Resolved—That no deficiencies brought from any circuit be allowed at the final meeting of the Contingent Fund Committee, unless the circuit has raised during each quarter the average sum of two shillings and six pence currency per member, as required by the long established rule, of each member paying one penny sterling a week, and a shilling per quarter.

Moved by Dr. BEATY—Seconded by H. A. MASSEY, Esq.

Resolved—That no applications for grants to Circuits or special claims be entertained by the Contingent Fund Committee or the Financial District Meeting, unless they have passed the Quarterly Meeting and have been signed by the Circuit or Recording Steward.

LAY ATTENDANCE AT DISTRICT MEETINGS.

Moved by W. McBRIDE, Esq.—Seconded by JAMES HODGSON, Esq.

Resolved,—That it is very desirous and expedient that as many lay members from each circuit—one of whom shall be Recording Steward—be authorized to attend the May District Meetings, and take part therein during the transaction of Financial business—as there may be Preachers travelling on the same circuit.

DIVISION OF CIRCUITS.

Moved by R. WOODSWORTH, Esq.—Seconded by D. MORROW, Esq.
